

My entire family loves listening to K-LOVE 105.5 FM. If we did not have K-LOVE our family would be forced to buy endless amounts of music CD's. There is no better station that builds up children to be good and obey thier parents. It also helps me understand how to raise good children. The music focuses on good not bad. No bad language. What a blessing this station has been to our family.